DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the flap as having a straight edge as claimed in claim 6 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered. Also there are no arrows present for reference numbers 46 and 50 as seen in figure 3. Also reference numbers 20 and 50 has not been described in the specification.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-10 and 13-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Diebold (US 3,224,448).

Diebold discloses an article of clothing 10 with a tight fitting stretchable body encircling portion 11, right and left legs 12,13; crotch portion 20; first and second flaps 42,43 each having free edges 44,45 structured and position able as claimed. (See Diebold, figures 2, 4 and 5 and col. 2, line 9 – col. 3, line 37). The flaps overlap as claimed and include the free edge structure and flap shapes as claimed. (See col. 2, line 33 – col 3, line 37). The length to width ratio of the crotch portion is within the claimed range as seen in figure 2.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 11 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Diebold (US 3,224,448) in view of Hoffman (US 2,812,516).

Art Unit: 3765

Diebold discloses the invention substantially as claimed except for the snap fasteners to close the crotch opening. Hoffman discloses a garment with an open crotch and snap fasteners 46 to close the opening as claimed. (See Hoffman, col. 2, lines 34-39).

Accordingly it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the crotch opening of Diebold with the teaching of Hoffman to include the snap fasteners to secure the crotch flap closed as desired.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
